HSSNM Summer Vacation

Matt Bernstein

John LeMay and Jason Garcia in Lincoln NM

It's summer vacation time at the Historical Society, with visitors coming to the museum and board members touring historic sites themselves! The museum received many visitors over the 4th of July weekend in conjunction with the UFO Festival and had a table at Galacticon as part of the festivities as well. The Historical Museum received a distinguished visitor in the form of Matt Bernstein, who took over as editor of the Wild West History Association Journal upon the retirement of Roy Young. We were very glad to have Matt tour the museum and archives, where he viewed our upstairs collection of Stetsons, Sombreros and, of all things, our rather extensive ukulele collection! (Yes, we have quite a few, one of which is even made from an armadillo.) Board President Jason Garcia and board member John LeMay were also present at the grand re-opening of The Ellis House in Lincoln. New owner Amy Gauthier is definitely a "hostess with the mostess" and we hope many of you will consider stopping by and seeing the beautiful historic home again!
